Welcome to our new Director!

Following the retirement of James Mahoney in December 2020, we began the search for our new library director. We are pleased to welcome Alice Meacham to the Rose Memorial Library team! Be sure to read her introduction on the back page of this newsletter.

Overdue Fines Resume

Since our initial shutdown in March 2020 we have not been assessing fines for materials returned late. As restrictions ease, we have again begun to collect fines for overdue materials.

NOTE: Fines are not collected for materials checked out by Stony Point seniors (age 65+). Additionally, fines are not assessed on children's (J) or teen (YA) materials for any cardholders. If you believe you have been assessed fines in error, please contact the circulation desk.

Wearing Masks in the Library

Per the Rockland County Library Directors' Association, our policy regarding mask wearing has not changed. A mask covering your mouth and nose will continue to be required when entering the library.

This policy is subject to change as the situation is reevaluated. Keep an eye on our website for updates or changes to this policy.

A Note from the President of the Board of Trustees

It is with great pleasure that the Board welcomes our new Library Director, Alice Meacham. She joins the Rose Memorial Library team from Anythink Libraries in Colorado. Alice comes with a wealth of experience, ideas, and a vision for the future. She is going to be a wonderful addition to our community.

As you may know, Rose Memorial Library was built and opened in 1949 with a town population of just 5,000. There has been one addition in the 1960s since that time. Today, Stony Point's population has tripled to 15,000 residents. Our library is 3,441 sq. ft. serving our community. In addition, the funding is limited and has increased minimally over the past ten years. We have experienced several maintenance issues resulting in necessary updates to our 72 year old building over this past year.

Comparative Library Statistics

| Name of Library | 2010 Population | Median Household Income | Square Footage of Library | Total Library Tax Income |
|-----------------------------------|-----------------|-------------------------|---------------------------|--------------------------|
| Rose Memorial Library Stony Point | 15,059 | $106,723 | 3,441 | $495,000 |
| Cornwall Public Library | 16,841 | $101,111 | 10,280 | $1,197,757 |
| Nanuet Public Library | 13,468 | $101,500 | 19,421 | $2,954,300 |
| Nyack Library | 14,699 | $83,371 | 33,790 | $3,034,986 |
| Pearl River Public Library | 15,564 | $115,365 | 26,000 | $2,660,929 |

As you can see from the Comparative Library Statistics, neighboring libraries with similar populations and median household incomes enjoy updated spaces in order to serve their communities and have income that enables enhancement of programming, dedicated activity spaces, and programs targeted for specific areas of interest. As a member of the Ramapo Catskill Library System, RCLS has completed a statistical analysis which determined that our library funding is not enough to meet and sustain the needs of the community we serve.

With this information in mind, the Rose Memorial Library Association Board of Trustees will be circulating a petition to place a resolution on the ballot during the General Election in November. This resolution will seek to increase library funding from the town by $70,000 to the sum of $325,000 annually. This breaks down to approximately $12-$15 per household per year.

The Board and our Library Director are working towards a long-range goal to expand and meet the needs of our growing town in the future. We ask and hope that the residents of Stony Point offer enthusiastic support for the future of Rose Memorial Library so that we can provide all our residents with a library that works for you and your families. The on-going support of the community is appreciated and will have a positive impact on the town of Stony Point and all of our residents.

Take care of one another and enjoy your summer!

Staff Picks

What library staff have been reading and enjoying...

Dawn recommends:

"The Girl with All the Gifts" by: M.R. Carey

I listened to the audiobook of this title, narrated by Finty Williams. If you like dystopian science fiction combined with horror, this novel by M.R. Carey will not disappoint. Most mornings on the military base, little Melanie is awakened in her cell to a gun aimed at her head. She is strapped head, wrist, and ankle into a wheelchair before being carted off to the classroom where she and other children will receive lessons from an assortment of "teachers." The sergeant overseeing this routine doesn't suffer these children or anyone who shows them compassion. But then, Melanie's favorite teacher does just that, which causes an awakening in the little girl that inspires both wonder and terror.

Susan recommends:

"The Last Thing He Told Me" by: Laura Dave

Hannah's entire world is turned upside down when her husband Owen disappears without a trace. Left to take care of her stepdaughter Bailey, the two set out to investigate and discover Owen was not the person they thought he was. Short chapters, well-paced and complex characters. This intense drama full of twists had me hooked right from the get-go.

Samantha recommends:

"The Leavers" by: Lisa Ko

The Leavers by Lisa Ko is about a Chinese-American boy who was abruptly separated from his mother. Deming's mother goes to work one day and never returns, and so he is moved from the Bronx to the suburbs and is renamed Daniel. The book follows Deming/Daniel and his mother Polly as they grapple with the harsh realities of life and the aftermath of their decisions. The story discusses many issues including: adoption, immigration, assimilation, identity, poverty, and the love between mother and son. This book was a great read and did a great job of putting the reader into the shoes of these complex and unique characters.

Oscar recommends:

"A Wolf at the Table" by: Augusten Burroughs

Anyone who has read Augusten Burroughs' first memoir Running With Scissors knows he had an unusual childhood. The tone and content of A Wolf at the Table is darker than some of his other work as it primarily concerns Burroughs' relationship with his abusive father. It's a challenging read but also incredibly compelling. Give the audiobook a try - it's narrated by the author and includes several original songs commissioned for the production from musicians like Patti Smith and Tegan Quin. Well worth a listen!

Director's Note

Dear Rose Memorial Library Community,

A couple of weeks ago, I drove almost 2,000 miles across the United States. I sped through the dry and craggy peaks of Colorado, to the seemingly endless plains and farmland of the Midwest, at last to the verdant hills and mountains of New York. For mile after mile along the highway, I witnessed the tenuous buds of neon green leaves returning to the trees and forsythia and wisteria in full bloom. I saw spring had finally arrived. It felt especially meaningful to me as I was driving towards my new home and new job. Spring is a wonderful time for beginnings.

I would like to introduce myself. My name is Alice Meacham and I am the new Director of Rose Memorial Library. I cannot express how delighted I am to be joining the Rose Memorial Library team! It is only my second day here, but thanks to the warm welcome of the Rose Memorial Library Staff and Board, I already feel at home. I still have so much to learn about the library itself and Stony Point as a whole, but I can already see the creative brilliance of this team, the charm and uniqueness of this town, and the many, many amazing opportunities that lie ahead for us all.

I would be remiss to not recognize one person specifically, Interim Director Carole Stewart Gomez. Carole's go-getter demeanor, knowledge of the library and its systems, strong commitment to the Stony Point community and unbelievable organizational talents made her a phenomenal steward of the library over the past few months.

In addition, we are thrilled to welcome Dawn Thornton, Amber Sterbenz, and Samantha Remigio as Circulation Clerks! Dawn, Amber and Samantha joined Rose Memorial Library in April.

A leader I deeply respect and admire, Pam Sandlian Smith, often quotes a proverb of unknown origin which has been ringing through my head continuously for days: "If you want to go fast, go alone. If you want to go far, go together." With the Stony Point community and Rose Memorial Library Staff and Board by my side, I know we can, and will go far. Together.
