NON-FICTION BOOK CLUB MEETUP

Thursday, April 16, 6 – 8pm

Join us for food, drinks, fun, and new friends - as we take a deep dive into the Mystery genre(s). Please read at least one of the following book selections:

Gyro Point Plus, Stony Point

- BIOGRAPHY: [Cleopatra's Daughter: From Roman Prisoner to African Queen – Jane Draycott] The first modern biography of Cleopatra Selene, the only daughter of Marc Antony and Cleopatra. She was expected to marry well and bear sons; and to legitimize and strengthen her parents' rule. Yet with their parents' deaths by suicide, the princess and her brothers found themselves the inheritors of Egypt, a claim that placed them squarely in the warpath of the Roman emperor.
- MEMOIR: [Song so Wild & Blue: Life with the Music of Joni Mitchell – Paul Lisicky] A gorgeous account of how Joni Mitchell's work shaped Paul Lisicky's artistry throughout his life. From the moment he heard Joni Mitchell, he recognized she was a rarity among musicians—a talent whose combination of introspection, liberation, and deep musicality set her apart. As a young man, Paul was a budding songwriter but as he matured, he set his guitar aside and lost himself in prose, which eventually takes him to the Iowa Writers' Workshop and into the professional world of letters.
- NON-FICTION: [The Ruin of All Witches: Life & Death in the New World – Malcolm Gaskill] In Springfield in 1651, peculiar things begin to happen: food spoils, livestock ails and property vanishes. People suffer fits and are plagued by strange visions and dreams. As tensions rise, rumors spread of witches and heretics, and the community becomes tangled in a web of spite, distrust and denunciation.

MOVIE MEETUP

Saturday, April 4, 2:30 – 5pm

Neurodivergent – In this mixed media experience inside the neurodivergent mind, follow the filmmaker's journey as she discovers her ADHD diagnosis during the height of the Covid-19 pandemic. Growing up, she knew she wasn't like the other kids but never understood why, and doctors didn't seem to be much help. After getting the correct diagnosis and understanding her mind better, she recognizes that her life-long pattern of negative thoughts and feelings were not the result of the learning disability itself but rather the shame of not being able to fully inhabit her genuine self. [2021, 25min]

Patriot Hills Center – Board Room

I am the River, the River is Me – Made over a 3-year period, in close collaboration with the Whanganui Māori, the film is a positive, urgent call to action for the rights of nature: now the fastest growing legal movement in the world. Māori river guardian Ned Tapa invites a First Nations Elder from Australia and his daughter, who are activists dedicated to saving their own dying river back home, on a 5-day canoe trip down this sacred river. [2024, 1hr 28min]
