BOOK CLUBS

SCI FI BOOK CLUB MEETUP

Sakura, Stony Point

Tuesday, July 21, 6 – 8pm

Join us for food, drinks, fun, and new friends - as we take a deep dive into the Sci Fi genre(s). Read one or more of the following book selections:

- SCI FI [The Gods Themselves – Isaac Asimov] In the 22nd century Earth obtains limitless, free energy from an exchange between Earth & a parallel universe. But even free energy has a price. The process could eventually lead to the destruction of Earth itself.
- FANTASY [The Morningside – Tea Obrecht] Magical novel about mothers & daughters, displacement & belonging. Myths both old and new.
- DYSTOPIAN [World Made by Hand (#1) – James Howard Kunstler] Dystopian Post Climatic Apocalypse. Residents of Union Grove, NY, struggle with the new way of life in a world of abandoned highways, empty houses, and horses working the fields.

MOVIE MEETUP

The Pyngyp Schoolhouse

Friday, July 24, 4 – 6pm

American Winter: The Decline of the Middle Class in America

A documentary that follows the personal stories of eight families struggling in the worst economic downturn since the Great Depression. AMERICAN WINTER reveals the devastating effects of the mortgage meltdown, high unemployment, the health care crisis, and budget cuts to the social safety net through the eyes of families in crisis. [2013, 1hr 30min]

The Immigrant

Chaplin's comic masterpiece has elements of satire, irony, and romance as well as cinematic poetry. It was Chaplin's favorite among all his two-reel comedies. [1917, 25min]
