Los Andes Restaurant, Stony Point

- FICTION: [Parasol Against the Axe – Helen Oyeyemi] Magical Realism. An adventurous, kaleidoscopic novel set in Prague where words in a book change depending on the day, or who is reading them.
- CLASSIC FICTION: [1984 – George Orwell] The story of one man's Nightmare Odyssey as he pursues a forbidden love affair through a world ruled by warring states and a power structure that controls not only information but also individual thought and memory. Big Brother is watching!
- HISTORICAL FICTION: [Katherine, The Wright Sister – Tracey Emerson Wood] The Wright sister is the surprising architect & mastermind of logistics, the powerful force and voice, full of enthusiasm and persuasion, behind her two brothers and the achievement of human flight.

MOVIE MEETUP: DOUBLE FEATURE!

Saturday, May 2, 2:30 – 5pm

Changing Season: On the Masumoto Family Farm “How many harvests do you have in you?” is the perennial echo that reverberates across the Masumoto Family farm. This film chronicles a transitional year-in-the-life of famed farmer, slow food advocate, and sansei, David “Mas” Masumoto, and his compelling relationship with daughter Nikiko, who returns to the family farm with the intention of stepping into her father’s work boots. The film is interspersed with moments of Nikiko’s razor sharp meditations on her family’s internment during WWII. [2014, 55min]

Pyngyp Schoolhouse

The Jewish Nazi? A Jewish child survives the Holocaust by posing as “Hitler’s youngest soldier.” After 50 years, his shocking secret is revealed, and he embarks on a quest to find his long-lost Jewish family. Through interviews with relatives, historians, and skeptics, the film explores one man’s search for the truth, and the extraordinary impact of his story on both his adopted and biological families. [2025, 1hr 30min]
