IV. Financial Reports*

V. Reports ~

- a. Director's Report: Carole Gomez, Interim Director.
 - The progress of the restoration to the Children's Room following the devastating damage is moving along. All the sheetrock has been replaced, painting is complete, and the rug will be laid shortly. We anticipate that Rose Memorial Library will officially reopen for Light Up Stony Point on December 5th.
 - The "lobby" is open for a variety of services. Patrons have come by to pick up/drop off books, notary services, new cards, copying, faxing, printing etc. Per legal advice, browsing within the library is not permitted because it is considered a construction zone.
 - Rose Memorial Library was a drop off location for the Girl Scout Coat Drive. They gathered four overflowing bins.
 - The library was a collection center for the annual Blessing Baskets food drive for NRSCD. We donated a total of eight baskets of food for Thanksgiving Dinners.
 - Although our in-person count for October was very low, the website visits more than doubled.
 - Despite the closing of Baker & Taylor (our book supplier), book orders are nearly caught up using Amazon and other resources.

December 17, 2025 Board Report

Carole Gomez, Interim Director

- It has been ten weeks since the water main break flooded the Children's Room with muddy sewer water causing devasting damage. Since that time, the RML team has worked to accommodate our patrons with a multitude of services offered with the exception of no browsing.
- The Children's Room reopened on Monday, December 8th with a soft opening the preceding weekend, December 6th & 7th. It has been moderately busy within the library with patrons happily returning to their "cozy" library.
- Joy has moved most of her classes back to the library offering Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday this week.
- Susan has taken some personal time. Children's was bustling with kids and their families happily returning.
- Dawn, our Communications Specialist, has been successful in keeping the public informed with regular updates on Facebook, Instagram and our website. She created and sent out an eBlast with the history of the flood.
- Despite our setbacks, a very successful coat drive was run in October through Toni Ann's Girl Scout Troop; throughout November, we were publicizing the Blessing Baskets food drive sponsored by Keller Williams to benefit families in the NRCSD. Through the generosity of patrons and staff, we had eight baskets to donate. In December, we are a drop off for the Marine's Toys for Tots campaign as well as Assemblyman Eachus' Toy Drive. Both boxes have received a multitude of donated toys.
- It has been our goal to demonstrate resilience and stay in the public eye. Once again, we participated in the Light Up Stony Point parade night acting as a warming center and distributing more than 250 cups of cocoa to the visiting public.

Office Manager

- To date, RML has received $8,117.00 from 139 donors. RML has received a few donations with condolence cards related to the flood.
- There have been a few inquiries about the Annual Appeal looking to donate.
- Rose Memorial Library has 3,122 registered patrons ending November 30th as a result of the RCLS global purge of patrons who have not utilized services since 2020.
- Seventeen (17) new cards were issued in November despite the fact that we were offering limited services.

- In November, there were 945 in-person visitors, a 50% increase over October; 1,112 visitors to the website totaling 1,763 visits resulting in 2,898 page views. This represents an increase in online activity.
- November Circulation Statistics show a total circulation of 678 items for November, more than twice in October. Since this time, we have moved all New Books, Adult and Children's, to the front. This has proved successful in encouraging limited browsing. The Adult new books will remain in that spot.
- Books By Mail Outreach program was utilized by five patrons.
- Monthly use of RML computer services was suspended at this time.
- There were seventeen (17) requests for Notary services. Katie took the class and the test. She is awaiting the results and will also be available as a Notary.
- Rose Memorial Library continues to offer Proctoring services to several school/training programs: Stanford University, Quinnipiac University, Tulane University, Real Estate University and Pro-Career Center

Katherine Coulter, Adult Collections Librarian & Circulation Supervisor

- New books and materials have been provided seamlessly through the transition of the repairs to our re-opening.
- New adult materials will stay on the shelves near the front door after opening for ease of access to patrons.
- Assembled play sets for children's room (kitchen set and light table).
- I finished studying and took the notary test around the past holiday break, awaiting results.
- The latter half of the month was spent helping in any area needed to get the children's room open as soon as possible once repairs were finished.

Susan Babcock, Children's Services (submitted by Carole Gomez)

- As October came to a close, Susan worked with Melissa Smith of Powerhouse Dance Center to secure studio space a few mornings per week. This arrangement allowed us to continue offering limited programming through November.
- All damaged books and toys were inventoried and priced in October for the insurance claim. Throughout November, Susan worked on reordering replacement books, supplies, and toys, and ensure they were processed and shelf-ready in preparation for the reopening.
- Circulation Supervisor responsibilities have been successfully transferred to Katie Coulter, Adult Collections Librarian.
- The entire team worked endlessly to complete re-shelving the books emptied from the POD once the restoration was completed the day after Thanksgiving.
- Working in shifts the week of December 1st, all books were returned to the shelves, new toys were put out for the children to enjoy and newlydiscovered missing items were replaced.
- The library was ready to be open to the public for Light Up Stony Point on Friday, December 5th.

• The activities scheduled for the week of December 8th will be rescheduled after Susan's return from personal leave.

Joy Buckhout, Adult Programming & Outreach Coordinator

- In November, we had a great turnout for programs, with 240 patrons attending 26 in-person programs.
- Due to the FLOOD, and subsequent Library Closure, Adult Programs were RELOCATED to the STONY POINT AMBULANCE CORPS. A Huge Thank You goes out to them! We have also had a few programs at The Round Table Brewery, Stony Point Brewing Co., and the Town of Stony Point Recreation Department. Thank you. But NOW WE ARE OPEN! Yay!
- The Winter Sculpture Garden will be on display starting December 15th, and throughout January. Air dry clay is available at the front desk for anyone interested in participating in our all ages Take & Make community art project.
- We will be having the Book Club's Annual Holiday Potluck 12-2pm, on Sunday Dec 14th.
- The 2026 Book Club list will be out mid-December.
- Our Genre Book Clubs [MYSTERY: Mystery/Thriller/True Crime; SCI FI: Science Fiction/Fantasy/Dystopian; NON-FICTION: Non Fiction/ Biography/ Memoir; FICTION: Fiction/Classics/Historical Fiction]. We rotate genres and meet once a month on a Wednesday evening at 6pm, out at a local restaurant. Interested patrons should request to be put on the email list for updates on titles and dates for events. You can also learn more on our website at: https://www.rosememoriallibrary.org/book-discussion-groups/
- Friday movies are moving to Saturday afternoon during the Winter. We will continue to focus on documentaries.
- Mahjong and Chair Yoga will continue through the end of the year up at Patriot Hills.
- Gentle Yoga has been put on "Pause" through the Winter Months. We will most likely bring it back in the Spring.

Dawn McFarland, Communications Specialist

- Separating the emails seem to be working better for the staff and email recipients. It is much more relevant to those interested in new books, adult programs and youth programming, and general news.
- Updating the website is becoming easier.
- I think it is amazing that the library is fully opened and during our closure we were able to provide many services as well as attend community events. So happy to be part of the team.
